

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Outer Banks

January 21, 2021

This Week's Service

Sunday, January 24th at 10:30 am

This Sunday: Join Rev. David, Worship Associate Lola Davis-Jones, and Musician Nancy Byrne on Zoom for this week's service: "Must We Reach Out?"

Inauguration Day represents a fresh start for our nation whenever there is a change of administration. This year, we are faced with calls for "unity" and "healing." What does forgiveness and rebuilding look like when real harm has been deliberately inflicted?

To join, use this link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83828448189>

Meeting ID: 838 2844 8189

To join by phone (audio only): +1 929 205 6099

News & Notes

TONIGHT: Thursday, January 21st, at 7:00 pm on Zoom

Forward Together! The UU Justice Ministry of NC is leading a District 3 Action Hour Event Now that a safe transition of power has occurred in our country, let us recommit ourselves to the work of building a stronger, more just democracy. Tonight we will gather with fellow District 3 constituents for a powerful hour of calls and letter writing to denounce Rep. Murphy for failing to uphold our democracy and hold President Trump accountable for inciting the deadly attack on the US Capital. We will also call on our U.S. Senators to convict President Trump. This is a moment of unprecedented challenge and possibility in our country. Let's get to work. It's not too late to spread the word! REGISTER HERE.

Do you know a NC caregiver who needs a break from their caregiving duties?

NC Lifespan Respite Program has respite vouchers available for eligible caregivers who have not received any publicly funded respite in the past 3 months! Applications must be submitted by a referring agency. Contact: Gail Sonneso at 252-480-3354, as GEM is a referring agency.

Rev. David's Quote of the Week

Musician Carrie Newcomer recently wrote: "A reconciliation without truth is a book that falls apart because half the pages and binding have been removed."

There are many situations--around race, around the legacy of colonialism, around the history of economic inequality in our country, and more--in which we have sometimes sought reconciliation without fully acknowledging truth first. In recent days we have witnessed (and some have experienced) traumatic upheaval in our national political life. What is our part in making sure the book remains complete when it's closed? Where in your own life have you learned the difficult but necessary relationship between truth and reconciliation?

Share the Plate – JANUARY

One half of all Sunday morning offerings will be donated to...

Outer Banks Cancer Support Group—providing moral support to cancer survivors and their families and transportation to and from nearby treatment facilities.

To donate: Visit our website: www.uucob.org and click on the DONATE button. After you specify the amount, you will have the option to select "Sunday Morning Offering"

Making Things Happen at UUCOB

Sending out a thank you from all of us at UUCOB...

That beautiful music you hear each Sunday isn't just magic. Part of putting together a service involves practice, practice, practice. This UUCOB team of Sherrie Lemnios, Jeremy Russell, and Nancy Byrnes met this week in our newly painted sanctuary for a rehearsal.

Connect with UUCOB

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Outer Banks
831 Herbert Perry Road Kitty Hawk, NC
Website: www.uucob.org
Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/UUCOB/>
Instagram! Follow us at: @uucob

For a list of our current Board members: UUCOB Board