

This Week's Service

Sunday, February 14th at 10:30 am on Zoom

Join us online for this week's Sunday service! This week is Rev. David's February Sunday out of the pulpit, and we invite you to join us for a full service from the UUA's Side With Love "30 Days of Love" campaign. Here's their description: "What if to "side with love" meant making bold, faith-full choices? What if it were even a little bit scary? This worship service brings together worship leaders and musicians from across the country to offer hopeful, moving, challenging reminders about what we, as Unitarian Universalists, are called to do, and BE, in the world."

To join this service, follow the Zoom link below. This is our regular Sunday Zoom link. We'll be sharing the service through Zoom, but as it's a full Sunday service we won't have our own Joys and Sorrows or offering this week. If you'd like to participate in our offering and Share-the-Plate collection, you can do so anytime at www.uucob.org! Here's the link:

A Time to Remember...

Remembering Dave Feild

Friends of Dave Feild are invited to join Rev. David between 2 PM and 3:30 PM on Saturday, February 13th for a time of remembering and sharing. Come for all or part; drop in as you can. We'll light one of the chalices Dave made for the congregation, talk about our own thoughts and feelings, and of course we'll welcome stories and memories of Dave. It's a virtual wake, so come with a cup of tea or other beverage that feels right for the occasion.

To join, follow this link:

A personal note from Cathie Feild...

"Thank you to everyone for your outpouring of love and support. Joining UUCOB is one of the best things Dave and I ever did. I could not make it through this without you."

Rev. David's Quote of the Week

Frederick Buechner (b. 1926) wrote:

"We are much involved, all of us, with questions about things that matter good deal today but will be forgotten by this time tomorrow — the immediate wheres and whens and hows that face us daily at home and at work — but at the same time we tend to lose track of the questions about things that matter always, life-and-death questions about meaning, purpose, and value. To lose track of such deep questions as these is to risk losing track of who we really are in our own depths and where we are re

Our Sunday services are, at least in part, about reminding ourselves to stay grounded in "things that matter always." Yet that's not enough. How do you keep track of your own deep questions, to stay aware of who you really are?

Share the Plate – FEBRUARY

One half of all Sunday morning offerings will be donated to...

Dare Minority Coalition—Investing in our community to create accessible housing and to empower the less fortunate.

To donate: Visit our website: www.uucob.org and click on the DONATE button. After you specify the amount, you will have the option to select "Sunday Morning Offering"

Beloved Conversations Info Session Tonight, February 11th at 7:30 pm

This spring, Beloved Conversations and UU the Vote are teaming up for a program to help us all grow as anti-racist justice organizers and activists. The program is organized through our Unitarian Universalist seminary in Chicago, Meadville Lombard Theological School. It's an experience of connection and spiritual development that you don't want to miss!

To learn more, register for this week's Info Session with Nicole Pressley - Thursday, Feb. 11th at 7:30

You can sign up here: <https://secure.everyaction.com/Hc50RIU-C00Mu9CVhbGK4Q2>

You'll get an overview of the program, a sneak peak of some of the work we'll be doing together and learn how Beloved Conversations has helped transform justice work in our congregations and justice groups.  All registrants will receive a special promotion code.
