

This Week's Service

Sunday, March 7 at 10:30 am
on Zoom

Join Rev. David, Worship Associate Gwen Taylor, and Musician Sherrie Lemnios on Zoom at 10:30 AM for this week's service: "Women Who Led Toward Justice" Throughout UU history, women like Olympia Brown, Dorothea Dix, Susan B. Anthony, and more have lived their faith by working to make a better world. We celebrate their example today—and those who continue to lead us.

News and Notes

Celebrating the Life of David Field
March 13th at 2PM.

We will have a Memorial Service celebrating the life of our member David Field. This will be an online service, available to congregation members and friends and others who wish to take part via Zoom. We will stream live from the Sanctuary with a very few of David and Cathie's family members and close friends present in person.

Please join us in celebrating the life of this well-beloved member of our congregational community by following the link below. Note that there is a password, in order to avoid a waiting room for this service.

LAST CHANCE to join
The Long Strange Trip Through UU History
The journey begins Wednesday, March 10 at 5:30
Want to know more about where we come from?

Take a video journey through Unitarian Universalist history! Beginning Wednesday March 10 at 5:30 PM, Rev. David will lead an introductory class in UU history, using an engaging video collection called "Long, Strange Trip." Our six-week series will meet Wednesdays at 5:30 on Zoom, viewing a video installment each week and then talking about its topics and questions they raise for us today. Want to join? Contact Rev. David at (925) 914-7353 or revdamorris@gmail.com. You need to register with Rev. David to receive the Zoom link for this class.

Celebrate Some Dare County
Women Who Lead!

The Dare County Arts Council is presenting a Women's History Month exhibit that dovetails nicely with our service this week: Women Warriors: Past, Present, Future.

This special exhibit created by fine art portrait photographer Anne Snape Parsons features thirty-six Outer Banks women and will be on display from March 5th through 27th. Celebrating historic women, community leaders, and aspiring young people, the exhibit showcases images of 36 women: 12 representing remarkable women who made history, 12 Outer Banks women who are already making a difference, and 12 young women who show the potential to become ambassadors for important work in the community. The DCAC has been very supportive of UUCOB events including our art exhibits and Cultural Crossroads Series; let's support this local partner in return.

Rev. David's Quote of the Week

American writer and inspirational speaker Helen Keller (1880 - 1968) wrote:

"Many persons have a wrong idea of what constitutes real happiness. It is not obtained through self-gratification but through fidelity to a worthy purpose."

While the pleasures and delights of simply enjoying the gifts life brings us should not be overlooked, it's important to remind ourselves every now and then that a dimension of depth is available to us through our power to commit ourselves to something larger than our immediate life. What commitment, what purpose are you keeping faith with?

Share the Plate – MARCH

One half of all Sunday morning offerings will be donated to...

GEM Adult Day Services: a community-based non-profit organization dedicated to providing quality services to adults with memory loss, physical, and mental disabilities and those in need of socialization. GEM provides a positive, supportive environment for both participants and their caregivers.

To donate: Visit our website: www.uucob.org and click on the DONATE button. After you specify the amount, you will have the option to select "Sunday Morning Offering"

Reminder

2020 Pledge & Tax Info

The end of year pledge status and tax donation letters have been mailed. With the sudden, deeply saddening loss of our Treasurer, Dave Feild, UUCOB is grateful that a team of finance volunteers have come together to keep UUCOB in good management hands. However, without Dave's expertise and detailed familiarity, there is a concern that the information we have provided may not be accurate in all cases. Please rely on your own records for tax reporting purposes and accept our apology for the inconvenience. Dave continues to be sorely missed for the person he was and the contributions he made at UUCOB as Treasurer and beyond.

Upcoming Event

SAVE THE DATE:
Wednesday, March 24th at 7:00 pm

The League of Women Voters of Dare County will host a Zoom Hot Topic Session on Wednesday, March 24th at 7:00 pm on "The Immigrant Experience." Author (and UUCOB member) Rosemary Rawlins will facilitate this program. Look for more information about this program next week.
